Montville Saturday morning at 5:49 o'clock. He had been suffering from heart trouble for some time. About three weeks ago he had to give up work. He leaves a wife and two daughters, Mrs. Frank Giro and Miss Ida Cushing, of Montville; one sister, Mrs. Dupuy, of Dudley; and one brother, born in 1855. He had been in the employ of the Palmer Bros. Co. 27 years in different departments, and for the past six years was foreman of the packing room.

Mrs. James Jackson.

Eather, widow of James Jackson, died Saturday at her daughter's home, 929 Stratford avenue, Bridgeport. She had been a resident of that city for many years and her later years were spent with her daughter, Mrs. Ernest E. Tuttle. In her active years she was much interested in charitable and church work, having been a member of St. Luke's Episcopal church since its organization. Two sons residing in Bridgeport, John F. and George S., employed at the U. M. C. Co., survive, as well as three daughters, the others being Mrs. M. E. Pollard of Easton, Mass., and Mrs. J. Calhoun of Norwich. There are 13 grandchildren. Following services in St. Luke's church Sunday afternoon, the body was taken to the convenience of the family to Hartford for burial. Mrs. Jackson was almost 56.
